Chapter 1: The adventure begins

One evening, a young, adventure-and –flying-loving- boy called Tommy was in a costume, as a pilot: his dream job. He also had a cute Labrador puppy called Tim. They were best buddies. They loved to play pilots. One day he was climbing a tall, oak tree and they were imagining they were in a platinum purple plane. The plane had three sections: third, second and first. Tommy was the pilot in the platinum purple plane. His dream plane.

Then a powerful, terrible storm started to brew. CRASH! It was horrific: they smashed into a lighthouse. The paintwork was damaged and the lighthouse was crumbling. The roof was almost gone, the light broke into a million pieces, and the living area was demolished. The beautiful plane was stuck in the side of the lighthouse. Luckily there were no passengers aboard.

The old bell ringer Bob [who always has a frown on his face and was always complaining] walked out with a tulip: he was gardening. “What have you done, where am I going to live now? I’m poor, and I’m old, I can’t afford a new home!” said Bob in a melancholy like voice, with a hand to his forehead.

Chapter 2: Bob's anger

Bob was enveloped in his own anger. He shouted at Tommy. Then Tommy started crying.

Tommy then screeched "I'm so sorry please forgive us we are only children!"

Bob then shouted in a fearsome voice, "I will forgive you on one condition. You will fix the lighthouse or you will be in big trouble. So you better get started."

Then he stopped imagining because then, at that moment, his mum called him and said "Time for dinner Tom, and you too Tim" Sadly it was his most Dreaded Meal ...SALAD! The Dreaded Meal had lettuce, tomatoes and, worst of all, BROCCOLI!!! Then Tim (the over excited small puppy) gave a yap of excitement. He dug in to bacon flavoured doggy dinner while Tom choked down salad. The next morning he woke up with the sense of calmness. He was as calm as a cat, for some reason.

Chapter 3: Education Purposes

One fine day, Tommy and Tim decided to go to the light house for education reasons. I looked at the weather on my mum's phone and it said there's going to be a great big powerful storm. I feel like it's going to hit the lighthouse. If it hits the amazing bright lighthouse, if the lighthouse brakes, then Tommy and Tim might RUN! When they arrived at the lighthouse they saw someone in front of it and he looked like Bob from his dream and he was looking confused. He was looking at the trees Tommy thought the trees were dancing in the wind: it was quite a show. Tim was barking at Bob's lookalike.

Then Tommy and Tim walked in to the light house to see how the lighthouse worked. It was incredible how the lighthouse worked. Tommy and Tim learned so much new things it was shocking. The beautiful, colourful, bright lighthouse was so big and there was so many rooms in there and so many people that worked there.

Chapter 4: The Storm

They heard a bang on the lighthouse. Scared, Tommy and Tim hugged their mum as tight as they could they were that scared. Then they found out there was a storm. They knew there was going to be a storm. Tim started barking at the sound of the storm: it was so loud. The storm went on all night and they couldn't sleep it was so annoying.

Tommy and Tim were hugging their mum so tight it was like she was about to scream. He has never been so scared in his life. His mum told him to stop but he didn't. He didn't want to let go. He wanted to stay safe and alive... Then all of a sudden, a flash of lightning missed the lighthouse by a centimetre. Tommy and Tim wanted to get away but they couldn't all doors were locked. Tommy's mother shouted "Tommy and Tim come here right now before you get hurt I don't want that to happen." What shall Tommy and Tim do? The lightning will hit them if they don't run!

Their mum said to try to get to the lowest floor so they don't get hurt by the storm-which would be a sensible idea. My mum started to panic because she didn't know what to do. There were no more ideas left. We couldn't run to the car so we didn't get struck by lightning. Tommy and Tim were stuck in the lighthouse for the night then. That will be exciting. The rain hit the lighthouse really hard.

Finally the storm stopped and Tommy and Tim went home with his mum but on the way home the car broke down. So they tried to call the garage people but the phone died just before, everyone was disappointed because that was their last hope. They had one thing left to do push it home. It was horrible. The rain poured down on our backs, but did not cool us. It was hard work already and they were miles away from home. It was hours and hours till we saw the hill on which our home was situated. We had no water and didn't stop for breaks. We were exhausted by the time we got home.

Chapter 5: Grown up Tommy and Tim

15 years later Tommy is now 22. He still wants to be a pilot. So he took lots of really hard tests like driving the plane. Then right of the very end of the year he graduated and became the best and most famous pilot ever. Tim is now a very old dog and is still Tommy's best buddy. He still can't believe he made it through to become a pilot. The plane is a great piece of machinery. He got his name signed on his plane. He still really loves being a pilot. It was his dream, but now reality. He drove an orange plane, with yellow and green wings. It was magnificent. He now looked like a proper pilot. He had a mop of blonde hair, and was tanned with a few freckles. Puppy Tim has grown up. When he was about to pass away (Tim, not Tom) Tom invented a special fluid to make Tim stay alive forever because they best buddies so Tom wanted him to stay alive. They've been best buddies since he could remember.

They both lived a good life. They found love, had children, and had a beautiful house. They all had everything they ever wanted. The girl was named Tambu. Now their family was complete and amazing.

The dog had found love in the ladies Chihuahua, and had children too. They kept one: Tina.
